

BTEC Level 3 Uniformed Protective Services

Part A - Bridging Work Task

This is a fantastic opportunity to expand your understanding of Uniformed Protective Services as you prepare for enrolment and for starting at Franklin in September.

Please complete the work and bring a copy to your enrolment, either printed or electronically.

The work will take you around 2 hours so plan your time to best suit you.

Task 1

How do I complete and submit my task?	Complete the tasks on paper/handwritten or digitally and bring a copy either paper or electronically to your enrolment appointment, also take this to your first lesson in September. If you did not attend the Taster Day don't worry – this isn't essential for completing this work but, please ensure that you have completed this bridging work.
Introduction to your Bridging Task	This Topic relates to Police Powers and the Law - Learners explore key elements of the legal system relating to the criminal trial process. They will look at the legal personnel involved as well as investigating police powers and their limitations.
Task details	Lesson overview Looking at the topic of Police Powers and the Law Come up with a new law/piece of legislation. Explain the law/piece of legislation and why you would introduce it (you can find evidence here to support your point). For example, if you wanted to bring in tougher sentences for people who harm animals, you would develop some key ideas of what the legislation would be and after each point state why you would make the change. Also, explain how the law would get made and a summary of the process of how laws are made. Explain how a citizen could break that legislation. Give examples of what you would constitute breaking the new legislation you have devised.

	Explain what action the police would take initially and what could be the penalty for breaking the law/piece of legislation (e.g. warning, fine, community service, prison time) Write no more than 1000 words for your presentation on google classroom and submit your work.
Resources to help you with the Bridging Task	To support your studies – watch a range of videos to focus on your points so you can have a balanced opinion on your point of view. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You tube</li> <li>• Documentaries</li> <li>• News</li> <li>• Social media</li> </ul> Read a range of articles to focus on your points so you can have a balanced opinion on your point of view. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Blogs</li> <li>• Newspapers</li> <li>• Journals</li> <li>• In house magazines</li> </ul> You could screen shot or reference the evidence you find to help support your argument and add it to the work.
Extension Tasks
Extension Tasks to stretch and challenge you	If you have completed the above to the best of your ability, try this extension task; Look at several new laws that have been adapted by the public services to help them be more effective at their job and support the public. For example, how the police/government have had to develop new laws since the invention of the internet.
