

A Level Law

Part A - Bridging Work Task

This is a fantastic opportunity to expand your understanding of Law as you prepare for enrolment and starting at Franklin in September.

Please complete the work and bring a copy to your enrolment, either printed or electronically.

The work will take around 2 hours, so plan your time to best suit you.

How do I complete and submit my task?	Complete the tasks on paper/handwritten or digitally and bring a copy either paper or electronically to your enrolment appointment, also take this to your first lesson in September. If you did not attend the Taster Day, don't worry – this isn't essential for completing the work, just make sure you bring it to your enrolment appointment.
Introduction to your Bridging Task	In preparation for the study of Law it is important that you have an understanding as to where Laws come from. Laws are also known as: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Legislation (You may see the process called the Legislative Process)• Acts• Statutes Keep this in mind whilst you are conducting your research. The bridging work will allow you to develop your knowledge as to where ideas for new laws may begin and the processes that lead to a law that we must follow. Before a law becomes an ACT / STATUTE it starts as an idea and requires support for it to be voted on in Parliament

Task detailsTask 1 -

Conduct research on the following influences –

Major events

The Law Commission

Judicial opinions

Government Manifestos

Public Opinion / Pressure Groups

Media

Create a detailed mind map using the information that you have found.

Task 2

1. Research and take notes on -

Who is involved in the process and what are their roles? Find information about who they are and where they get their power from.

The three branches, collectively known as Parliament, are –

- Monarch
- House of Commons
- House of Lords

2. How are laws made? What are the stages?

- Create a flow diagram outlining the stages from 'Draft Bill to Royal Assent.'

Task 3

Write a report on the influences on law making and the legislative process.

Your answer should cover a variety of influences and the stages a bill must pass to become an Act. Try to use examples of real laws that have been passed. Use the resources provided to support this.

Present your findings in a typed report, preferably using Google Classroom, titled:

'Influences on Law making and The Legislative Process.'

Images can be used should you think they are appropriate.

Make a reference list on your final pages of the links that you use.
